

REGENT'S
UNIVERSITY LONDON

Social Media Community Guidelines

1. Purpose

1.1 Regent's University London uses social media to connect with our current, past and prospective students as well as their families, faculty, staff and the wider community. We aim to inform, engage and foster healthy discussion by creating a safe and supportive environment.

1.2 We welcome your participation on our social media channels and encourage respectful discourse. In order to create this safe environment we have outlined some guidelines which apply to any engagement with us or other members of the community on any of our social media channels.

1.3 By engaging with our social media channels you agree to follow our community guidelines.

2. Guidelines

Comments must not:

2.1 Contain spam, be defamatory of any person, deceive others, be obscene, offensive, threatening, abusive, hateful, inflammatory or promote sexually explicit material or violence.

2.2 Promote discrimination based on race, sex, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation or age.

2.3 Breach any of the terms of any of the social media platforms themselves.

2.4 Be off-topic, irrelevant or unintelligible.

2.5 Contain any advertising or promote any services.

3. Breach of guidelines

3.1 We reserve the right to determine, at our discretion, whether contributions to our social media channels breach our guidelines. We reserve the right to hide or delete comments made on our channels, as well block users who do not follow these guidelines.

3.2 We also reserve the right to send any comments we deem appropriate to law enforcement authorities for investigation as we feel necessary or is required by law.
